

GET AWAY FROM THE CROWDS!

You love to cruise. You've experienced wonderful trips on large ships. You've enjoyed the many dining options, lively entertainment, the splendid amenities. But now you are ready for something new. You want to go where big ships can't. You want a more intimate experience, venture to new destinations, get away from the crowds. Plenty of options await you on small ship cruises!

LUXURY AND PREMIUM LINES

Luxury and premium lines have small to mid-sized ships in their fleets, ranging between 150 to 1100 passengers. More intimate than the mega-ships, they offer spaciousness and high levels of personal service. While ships may be smaller, amenities are top notch.

- Azamara Club Cruises
- Crystal Cruises
- Holland America Line
- Paul Gauguin
- Ponant
- Princess Cruises
- Regent Seven Seas
- Seabourn
- SilverSea

SPECIALTY LINES

Ranging between 88 and 300 passengers, specialty lines take you off the beaten path, from great American waterways and beautiful Norwegian fiords to hidden harbors around the globe.

- Alaskan Dream
- Blount
- Haimark
- Hurtigruten
- Starclipper
- Un-Cruise
- Windstar

EXPEDITIONS

Expedition ships takes you on eco- adventures, from Antarctica and the Arctic Circle to getting up close to whales in the Baja or snorkeling with seals in the Galapagos.

- Celebrity
- Crystal Cruises
- Hurtigruten
- Lindblad
- Quark
- SilverSea

RIVER CRUISES

Ships are small, under 200 passengers, which allows you to get to know your fellow passengers. River cruises are a perfect way to experience different cities and cultures that larger ships can't access. Experience ever-changing landscapes and scenery in a very leisurely way.

- A-Rosa
- A & K
- AmaWaterways
- American Cruise Line
- American Queen
- Avalon
- CroisiEurope
- Emerald Waterways
- Go Barging
- Scenic Cruises
- Tauck
- Uniworld
- Viking

For more information, call 602.540.7338 or email Laurie@lakamatravel.com

Picture credits: Lindblad Expeditions, Seabourn, Avalon River Cruises, Abercrombie & Kent, Blount, Hurtigruten, Alaskan Dream and Windstar cruise lines.